

AMY REBECCA ROMASHKO, M.D., FAAP

WORK EXPERIENCE

5/2017-Present

Children's Hospital of Wisconsin

Language of Caring Facilitator

Responsibilities:

- Facilitating "Language of Caring" (a communication skills building program) modules for CHW Providers to help improve the quality of patient/provider communication throughout the CHW system.

11/2012-Present

Children's Hospital of Wisconsin

Medical/Program Director – Department of Urgent Care

Responsibilities:

- Supervising urgent care physicians and midlevel providers.
- Recruiting and hiring urgent care providers.
- Partnering with primary care pediatricians both inside and outside of the Children's Hospital System to help support each patient's medical home.
- Promoting a culture of active learning and professional growth among the providers and staff of urgent care.
- Overseeing/participating in the development of quality improvement initiatives and evidence based treatment guidelines to continuously improve the medical care provided by our clinics.
- Participating in strategic planning and budget planning for the urgent care department.

1/2006-Present

Children's Hospital of Wisconsin

Pediatrician - Department of Urgent Care

Responsibilities:

- Practicing as an urgent care pediatrician, providing evidence-based after-hours acute care to Children at multiple sites throughout the greater Milwaukee area.

7/2003-7/2005

Loyola University Instructor in Pediatrics- Dept of Primary Care

Loyola Family Health Center at LaGrange Park

Responsibilities:

- Practicing as a pediatrician with staff privileges at three hospitals in the Chicago suburbs.

8/2003-5/2005

LaGrange Community Nurses Clinic- Volunteer Work
Pediatrician and Instructor in Pediatrics

Responsibilities:

- Staffing a pediatric clinic serving a predominantly Hispanic, underserved community two half-days per month.
- Supervising Loyola pediatric residents and medical students.

11/2003-12/2004

Loyola University Medical Center
Moonlighter- Pediatric Emergency Department

Responsibilities:

- Covering open weekend shifts in the pediatric emergency department.
- Supervising Loyola pediatric residents.

EDUCATION

6/2000-7/2003

Loyola University Medical Center
Ronald McDonald Children's Hospital
Pediatrics Residency

8/1996-5/2000

University of Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health
M.D. Degree

8/1992-5/2006

University of Wisconsin, Madison
B.S. Zoology
Medical Scholars Program

CERTIFICATIONS

American Board of Pediatrics

- Board Certified 10/2003
- Recertification Exam Passed
- Currently up to date with MOC recertification requirements.

USMLE National Boards

- Passed Step One 1997
- Passed Step Two 2000
- Passed Step Three 2002

COMMITTEES

2000-2003 Loyola Pediatric Residency Education Committee

- Participated in monthly meetings with other residents and attending physicians to discuss and address issues relevant to medical student and resident education

1996-2000 Domestic Violence Awareness and Advocacy Program University of Wisconsin Medical School

- Co-President 1996-1998
- Organized medical student training workshops on domestic violence awareness, prevention, and advocacy skills
- Worked as an on-call domestic violence advocacy volunteer for the University of Wisconsin Hospital emergency room.

1996-2000 DOC (Doctors Ought to Care) University of Wisconsin Medical School

- Educated area elementary and high school classes on issues such as anatomy/body systems, smoking and the tobacco industry, STD prevention, and lifestyle choices.

1996-1998 MEDIC University of Wisconsin Medical School

- Volunteered at a Saturday morning free clinic staffed by UW attending physicians and medical students in an underserved Hispanic community.

1996-1998 Gross Anatomy Lab Demonstration Program University of Wisconsin Medical School

- Educated elementary through adult continuing education students on body systems using human cadavers in the medical school gross anatomy lab.

RESEARCH / PRESENTATIONS

Anticipatory Guidance in the Newborn Period: Can it make a difference?

- Senior Resident Research Project 2002-2003

Domestic Violence for the Pediatrician

- Presentation for staff at LaGrange Community Clinic 2002
- Presentation at Loyola Pediatric Morning Report 2002

LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

Spanish

- Language Testing International Spanish Fluency Test 8/2014
 - Score: Intermediate-High
- Previous Spanish Language Experience:
 - 1/2006 to present
Staffing Children's Hospital of Wisconsin Urgent Care- 16th Street
Community Clinic
 - 2003-2005
Staffing LaGrange Community Nurses Pediatric Clinic
 - 2000-2003
Staffing Loyola Pediatric Residency Continuity Clinic, Maywood, IL
 - March 1998
UW Med School International Health Care Experience - Havana,
Cuba
 - 1996-1998
UW Medical School MEDIC Clinic volunteer work
 - Summer 1997
American Medical Student Association "Salud" Summer Immersion
Program - Tegucigalpa, Honduras
 - 1992-1994
College Coursework University of Wisconsin, Madison
 - 1988-1992
High School Coursework 1988-1992